

PERSONAL CONFERENCE GOALS

Instructions: This personal conference goal sheet is a contract you're being asked to make with yourself. You will share it with your Scoutmaster and together you will develop some goals to make your troop better.

During this week, you had presentations on eleven important skills of leadership. After each presentation you were asked to make some notes. Gather those notes. Sit down by yourself and list at least two things in each area you can do to improve your troop and patrol.

1. Knowing and Using the Resources of the Group

2. Communicating

3. Understanding the Needs and Characteristics of the Group

4. Representing the Group

5. Effective Teaching
