Copyright Violation Suspected At Camp Redwing

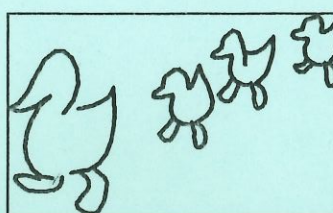

Tyler Gorsuch and Nick Peters are filing claims in White Stag court because of attempts to illegally copy phrases from their patrol name in 1994. "Our patrol's name was 'The Neon-Green Teenage Mutant Ninja Grasshoppers With Pink Velvet Stripes And Purple Polka-Dots'." It was very original then." said Gorsuch and Peters. They were having second thoughts about court when they were informed that they did not have copyright on anything and going to any court would be a waste of their time.

If anyone in camp sees Ben Lasher's sister, contact Nick Peters immediately!

Shark Attack!!!

The Sand Shark was reported last seen on its way back to the Hyatt. As we announced this morning, he had become aggravated at the participants for walking on his sand. We also believe a she-shark is lurking somewhere in camp and they will try to mate. If you see any fins, big or small, run for your life!!! (Staff will not take responsibility for any injuries since we told you to swim at your own risk)

DUCK QUIZ

The answer to yesterday's duck quiz is the gadwall.

Today's question is, "What duck has black and white intermintent bars in secondary flights, hint it has webbed feet, quacks, flies, and swims."
