Volume 1 Issue 3

Well, we've got some good news and some bad news. First the bad news, we nearly lost five of our local lovely hotels due to a few dacoda holes not being put out before everyone left. The good news is that your staff put them out for you.

The management system would like us to remind all of you that still have not paid for your lodging in their hotels, that all bills, including room service, must be paid before leaving Red Wing Estates. Those who don't cooperate shall have the right to a local atorny in a court of law.

We are sorry that the rest of camp was not invited to Brandon Spark's party last night but don't worry, we picked up the slack for the rest of you.

Also, we would like to inform you all that today is Travis Spark's birthday, so go spank him as many times as you like, just tells us to look away while you're doing it.

The official camp time is 12:57.45pm, Please make a note of it.

We would like to notify the conference that our lifegaurds have taken the summer off for quality family time and you shall have to swim at your own risk in the pool.

Troop 941 has been delayed in their construction due to a lack of funds at the moment, therefore they will just have to dream about having a gateway for their troop tent.

The staff has decided to turn down the Air Conditioner in camp due to the drop in temperature and the snow flurries.

NOTICE: Steve Ostendorf has misplaced his dream-catcher and is willing to sing for it if someone finds it.
Chuck Sparks Jr.: please read insert to right for some guidance.
