

The Daily Stag

November 15, 2025

The "2025 Reunion" Issue

Top 10 Reasons You Came to This Year's Reunion

10. You didn't have anything better going on.
9. You missed Neil Spotts.
8. You are Neil Spotts.
7. You ended up here on accident after you forgot to take that left turn at Albuquerque.
6. Mr. Butler owes you $5.
5. Steve-O's Barbeque.
3. To find # 4.
2. To get a copy of this year's Daily Stag.

And the number one reason you came to this year's reunion is...

1. To see old friends and recall fond memories of White Stag!

Postal Service Saved!

The United State Post Office was facing serious budgetary issues, but all of that has changed thanks to one former White Stag staff member.

"Due to Dennis Boyle's extensive invitational letter-writing campaign as part of his work on the White Stag Reunion Committee, I am pleased to announce that the Postal Service has had its most profitable quarter in 25 years. In fact, we have been able to cover a $175-million-dollar budget shortfall for the 2025 fiscal year, ensuring continued operations well into 2026," said Postmaster General David P. Steiner in a public statement on Friday.

The next time you receive a credit card offer, jury summons, or electric bill in the mail, be sure to say a big THANK YOU to Dennis!

Word of the Day:

Stagnation
(Stag me, Stag me)

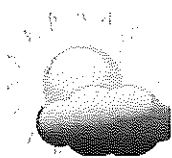

Goat Man Spotted at Camp Redwing

The Daily Stag has received reports of Goat Man sightings over the course of the last few days. Former staffers report that he has been seen examining the ruins of his castle and attempting to break into the reefer. If you or someone you know spots Goat Man, please contact Neil Spotts immediately as he has not yet paid his $30 registration fee for the reunion.

Weather Report

High of 67°

Partly Cloudy Skies

Gusts up to 20 mph
due to long-winded
stories of White
Stag memories

100% chance of meeting friends
both old and new

In memory of those who aren't with us today...

... not because they died,
but because they had something better going on.